Randolph Williamson welcomes a new Vice President of Development to our team. Darrell joins RW with over 25 years of experience in Commercial Real Estate, Development, Design, and Construction.

Darrell graduated from Samford University with a Bachelor of Arts degree and has served as Vice President to several large Commercial Real Estate Development firms in the Southeast. During this time, he has overseen the development, design, and construction of approximately 30 million square feet of Commercial space with a value of over $4 billion.

Darrell has worked on developments ranging in size from 100,000 SF to over 3 million SF and from 8 acres to over 16,000 acres across the southeastern US: Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Texas, California and Georgia.

He has managed the construction processes and procedures for development including legal/due diligence, annexations, contract negotiations, construction oversight and expertise, costing, budget management, scheduling and ensuring the delivery of high quality developments to the owners.

James Clark Celebrates 25 Years

This year marks James Clark's 25th anniversary with Randolph Williamson, formerly Group VI. He is an invaluable asset to the RW Commercial Real Estate Team, and serves as the Executive Vice President of Real Estate

James has over 50 years of experience and nearly half of that time has been spent here at RW. An alum of UGA, James is a member of the Georgia and National Association of Realtors, Board of Directors of Student Leadership University and an Active Life Member of the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors. In addition, he is listed in the Marquis Directory of Who's Who in America and the recipient of the Silver Phoenix Award, recognizing 25 years of membership in the Million Dollar Club.

He is well-known and widely respected among the Commercial Real Estate professional community in south Atlanta. We are excited to celebrate this "Silver Anniversary" with him and hope to spend many more years working together. Congratulations, James!

AWARDS

Patriotic Employer Award

Randolph Williamson's own Mark Williamson was recognized by the ESGR (Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve) division of the Office of the Secretary of Defense, as a "Patriotic Employer" for his "Contributing to national security and protecting liberty and freedom by supporting employee participation in America's National Guard and Reserve Forces.

Randolph Williamson currently employs a number of Reservists and Veterans in its mission to provide superior expertise to successfully complete any commercial real estate project on time, within budget and with personal attention to the client throughout the project.

Ron Williamson Award

Mike Calhoun, General Superintendent and Director of Safety, was presented with the Prestigious Ron Williamson Award for Leadership last month. It reads:

"In recognition for your outstanding leadership and performance to develop and present an OSHA 30 Hour Safety Program to enhance everyone's awareness of hazards on construction projects. And your dedication and commitment to the pursuit of excellence for yourself and Randolph Williamson."

This prestigious award will be presented "pro re nata" according to how often it is earned by individuals and teams who strive for excellence.
